Recycled and Upcycled - Defined: New art made from old art, such as torn or cut water-color paintings collaged into a new painting; broken up pottery or tiles used to make a mosaic; a painting depicting something recycled or should be recycled; a painting done on something old like an oil painting on a sawblade. Does not include art works that have been "recycled" from a previous show. Upcycled is a new term being used in the arts & crafts world to designate high quality recycled creations. Check out Etsy.com for lots of inspiration.

Rules of Entry - All entries must be originals, no copies, prints or reproductions of an original artwork. Preferably submit artwork not seen before at the Paradise Art Center. Compositions from previously published photographs not taken by the artist, or from other artists' work are not considered original thus not eligible.

No Entry Fee = Free to submit
